As it is, they have no sure thing unless their disorganized pitching corps rounds to in a hurry in time to stave off defeats that may be indicted between now and the wind-up of the season if there is not a brace in the box. The Brooklyns, handicapped by weak pitching on the part of Weyhing and Kennedy, were badly beaten in the first game double-header yesterday. The largest crowd that has been seen at Washington Fark since the opening game of double header. Washington Park since the opening game of the season, was at hand yesterday to sea the "double header" which many regarded as having an important bearing on the League champlonship. More than 9,000 bail cranks passed the turnstiles, and of that number 4,000 paid 26 cents admission, overflowing into the outfield. There were also many Pittsburg "rooters" in the crowd and they encouraged the "second placers" with no end of lung power. Reserving Pitcher McGinity for the second game. Manager Hanlon was perplexed as to the best man to pit against the hustling Pennsylvanians in the first contest. He decided take a chance with veteran Gus Weyhing, who warmed up well and was anxious to go in. But Weyhing was easily bumped from the start, and after the fourth inning he had to give way to the erratic Kennedy. "Roaring Bill" was an even easier mark and the Pittsburgs pounded the ball all over the field until they were ready to drop with weariness from tearing around the bases.

an even easier mark and the Pittsburgs pounded the ball all over the field until they were ready to drop with weariness from tearing around the bases.

The visitors collected a total of nineteen safe smashes, eleven of which were knocked out by Clarke Ritchey and Waxner. With such a handicap in the pitching box the Champions were somewhat disheartened in the early stages, but they braced as the great crowd continued to cheer them on and found Chestro's curves in the last two innings for seven of their fourteen hits. In short, they hit well enough to win an ordinary game, but their opponents' picnic in the batting line proved too much of an obstacle to overcome. The Pittsburgs played real championship ball in the field, Ritchey, Williams, Ely and Wagner making the most sensational plays. Magnificent catches by Keeler and Jones were also worthy of the appliause with which they were received. Dahlen, Kelley and Jennings made bungles that were costly. In the sixth inning Wagner in sliding to first base spiked Jennings in the foot so that the crack first baseman was compelled to retire from the game. This brought Kelley to first base and operied a way for Sheckard to play left field Roth teams kicked over several rulings by Umpire O'Day, but the crowd upheld the presiding official and ordered the objectors to play ball with their hands instead of their mouths. When the game was over the sky was overcast and it looked like rain. The score:

When McGinnity walked onto the diamond to pitch the second game the crowd cheered him long and loudly. The "iron man" had so much speed that few could believe that he had inspeed that few could believe that he had induged in a full game on Friday. He pulled out a victory, too, but it was not impressive enough to suit the cranks, especially those who wanted to see Pittsburg win again. It rained lightly all through the first inning and as the cloud obsecured the sun later on, the umpire was compelled to call the game on account of darkness after the Pittsburgs had finished the first haif of the sixth inning. Errors by Dahlen and Ritchey, both of whom dropped fly balls, cut a big figure in the result, but as in the first contest, there were many fine plays, those by Sheckard, McGuire, Ritchey, Beaumont and Clarke bringing the spectators to their fest. Big Phillippe occupied the box for the visitors, and his work after the first inning compared favorably with that of McGinnity.

dure. Ritchey, fleatment and Clarke bringing the spectators to their feet. Big Phillippe occupied the box for the visitors, and his work after the first inning compared favorably with that of McClimity.

The first bail hit by Clarke in the opening inning was so sharp that it split one of cross's fingers. Lave had to get out of the game and that enabled be Montreville to get onto third base. Beaumont then forced Clarke, and when Sheckard made two great running catches off Ritchey and Wagner the crowd let loose its lungs. The Brooklyns ther made three runs in their half, much to the satisfaction of their friends. Jones lined a terrific one over second base, but Ritchey caught the bail with one hand a foot from the ground and tumbled in a heap. The catch robbed Jones of at least a single, but it was such a beauty that everybody cheered. Then Keeler drew a base on bails and got to the plate on hits by Sheckard and Kelley. Dahlen and Le Montreville also hit striety and "Sheck" and Joe scored. Daly fouled to Zimmer, and when DeMontreville purposely allowed himself to be caught between first and second Dahlen made no effort to go home before the out could be made, in the second irang McGuire took a foul off the front of the grand stand from Fly's bat which left Zimmer on first. It was a great catch, for the veteran had to make a long, had run for it. The Champlons got another run in their half, on McGuire's base on balls, an error by Ely, Jones's bunt and an out.

With the score 4 to 0 against them the Pittsburgs squared matters in the third in a way that made the crowd groan. Phillippe opened with a strike out. Then Clarke scratched a hit and stole second. Beaumont put his caprain on third with an hand Clarke ran in on Ritchey's fly to Sheckard. As Beaumont to Histop Base hit to centre which select ran in on Ritchey's fly to Sheckard, but Dahlen called and muffed it. Wagner and O'Brien raced in. The score was tied, and when Zimmer retired the side with a grounder to Daly many feared another defeat for the Champions t

Rowdyism in its true light was again shown at the Polo Grounds yesterday afternoon. Scrappy McGraw's terrors, were terrors indeed, and he and Burkett were put out of the game and ordered off the field. The two planted themselves in right field and in the last inning of the game burned newspapers over their heads. McGraw was put out of the game in in the first inning for kicking over his out at the plate. In the third inning Robinson was called out at third base on a close decision. The whole St. Louis team rushed at the umpire and started to abuse him. Burkett was not particular in his remarks and was at once put out. Donlin should have met the same fate. The Perfectos won the game in the seventh inning on errors by Davis and Van Haltren and two timely hits. Mercer hurt his finger in sliding to second in the seventh and had to rettre. Carrick took his place. The game was called in the first half of the eighth inning when St. Louis had scored two runs with two out. The score: ST. the speedy Pastime A. C. sprinter, would hustle the international hero to the tape, but the "Indian," who has been winning well all the summer, was either overtrained or overanxious, as he failed to show among the point winners. Long led from start to finish and won by one yard and a half from his clubmate, P. J. Walsh. Edwards of the Knickerbockers was two feet behind. Walsh, while Kent finished so close to the "cherry diamond" man that many of the spectators thought he made a dead heat of it.

In the one-furlong dash Long also led all the way and won by four yards from Edwards, who turned the tables on Walsh. At his favorite distance, quarter of a mile, Long indulged McKinnery of the Pastimes with the lead until passing the house at the beginning of the stretch. The N. Y. A. C. man then let out a link and won as he pleased by four yards.

The half-mile proved a surprise for John Bray. Although by far the best class man in the race, he failed to show prominently at any stage, and T. G. McGirr, whose forte has been long distances, developed a burst of speed that landed him a winner. Brennan of the Pastimes cut out the pace, and led until passing the eastern grandstand on the final lap, when McGirr went by and won in easy style by lifteen yards.

A. L. Newton, who made a poor showing in the Marathon race at Paris, was in rare form and won both the one and three mile runs. In the former he led all the way and won by twenty yards from a poor field. The three-mile was, however, one of the best contested races of the day. The field of a dozen runners included two veterans, W. McCarthy and T. J. Vogellus, who have each been on the path about fifteen years. McCarthy failed to show his old speed and retired when in next to last position at a bout two miles. Vogellus cut out the running in sterling fashion and ied nearly every step of the first two and a haif miles. Newton and Fitzgerald, of the Star A. C., were in close attendance and the N. Y. A. CHARTER OAK PARK POOL SELLING. Why the Law and Order League Failed to

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 8 .- Capt. Samuel P. Traock, secretary of the State Law and Order League, in discussing the pool selling at the Charter Oak Park during the grand circuit races this week, said to-night that the reason he did not raid the gamlers at the races was that the Law and Order League had not been called upon to make such raids by the local Hartford authorities. Then he added:

"League agents have been on the ground from day to day and have submitted their from day to day and have submitted their reports. Pool selling has been carried on in exactly the same spot as last year, with precisely the same deflant and unblushing publicity, seemingly with the same enormous volume of gambling business and by the same men in part who were arrested and fined last year. These men were convinced apparently, that either the enforcement of law, so far as it regarded them, was bound to fall between two stools, or that their arrest and subsequent fines would be but insignificant items on the expense side of their account, not worth hesitation in view of their rich income during the week.

week.

"We were asked to locate the responsibility for the continuance of this evil, the most gigantic of a gambling nature in the State. Legally it appears to be with the West Hartford authorities. We do not see how the conclusion can be avoided that henceforth, now that the legal status is determined, it is also morally with them if pool selling continues in years to come. The law gives them a remedy by providing that the Selectmen may appoint a requisite number of special constables to preserve order and enforce the statutes."

AMERICAN YACHT WINS.

Genesee Outsails Minota in the First of the Races for Fisher Cup. ROCHESTER, Sept. 8.—The first of a series of three races between the Minota, the Canadian challenger for the Fisher cup, and the Genesee, the American defender of the cup, off Charlotte to-day was won by the Genesee The event is of considerable interest along the Great Lakes. Last year the Genesee, under the colors of the Chicago Yacht Club, outsailed the Beaver, the Canadian boat. To-day the Genesee represented the Rochester Yacht Club, and the Minota the Royal Canadian Yacht Club A bevy of excursion boats, despatch boats "hundred" it was expected that A. H. Kent, and steamers hovered about the course to-day, and when it seemed that the Genesee was a sure and steamers novered about the course to-day, and when it seemed that the Genesee was a sure winner they began tooting their whistles until the noise was deafening. The course for the day was over an equilateral triangle of 31-3 nautical miles to the leg, twice around, twenty miles in all.

The preparatory gun was fired at 10 o'clock from the Charlotte pier and at 10:50 the yachts lined up for the start. Soon after the preparatory gun was fired the breeze freshened, but it was then light, blowing about five or six miles an hour. It was nearly northeast, so the yachts started almost in the face of the wind.

The Genesee's start was at 11:02:30, while that of the Minota was 11:03:00. The Genesee rounded the first buoy at 11:59:45, the Minota at 11:58. The Genesee was at the second buoy at 12:32 and the Minota at 12:82:29. The Genesee gained steadily. The Canadian boat seemed unlucky, especially in the use of her balleon jib. Shortly after the Minota turned the first buoy the balloon jib halyard fouled, and the crew could not break the jib, necessitating a delay of a minute. The Genesee at the second buoy was six minutes and twenty-eight seconds in the lead. The official time at the finish was as follows:

Finish

The next race in the series will occur next Monday over a different course. Amelius Jarvis is the skipper of the Minota. The Genesee's skipper is Charles G. Davis. The crew of each beat consists of five amateurs and one professional.

New Rochelle Rowing Club Holds a Success fu! Regatta.

NEW ROCHELLE, Sept. 8.-The New Rochelle Rowing Club held its twentieth annual regatta on Echo Bay this afternoon. The races commenced at 2 o'clock and were witnessed by several thousand people who filled the clubhouse and lined the Hudson Park shore. The course was from Green Flats at the month of the bay to a point off the clubhouse, a distance of one mile, but which was shortened one half for some of the events owing to the strong south wind which, with the outgoing tide, prevented good time from being made The Regatta Committee, which was composed of Alexander Willcox, George S.Squire and William E. Moore, made the affair the most successful ever held here, and with the exception of four mishaps, everything the exception of four mishaps, everything passed off smoothly. In the first event, the single scull gigs, Badeau broke his oar before the first heat was under way, and he started again in the second and won. He and Abramson, the winner of the first heat, concluded to row the final on Sept. 22. In the double scull race Kuchler and Scott ran into a mooring 300 yards from the finish and capsized. They were picked up by the judges launch. Cothran finished first for the Grenzebach trophy, but was protested by Jarvis on a foul and disqualified. Only two crews started in the four and eight-oared contests as the third boat became disabled before they reached the line. The summaries:

A protest has been filed by a contestant in the Cycle Path Handicap of Labor Day and the officials will meet to consider it on next Tuesday evening.

It was well known on the day of the race that there were eleven or twelve riders in the first "bunch" that finished, but only seven men were scored. The committee expected to receive some protests and it has not been disappointed. If the protests received can be substantiated, the result of the race will have to be changed. The hairman of the Race Committee, George W. Shannon, when questioned about the situation yesterday by a reporter of The Sun, said: "It is the most unfortunate thing that ever happened in connection with one of our races. There is no doubt that some of the first to finish were not scored. It is a pity that any one should be deprived of his just deserts, but I really do not see what we can do about it. Any one could claim to have been in that first bunch, but unless he can prove his assertion we cannot act. It is possible, however, that some of the missed riders may be able to prove where they finished." It was well known on the day of the race
